This book is an English translation of three books by French historian Benjamin Stora about the history of Algeria from its colonization by the French up to 2000. The period of 1830 to the beginning of the Algerian revolution against the French in 1954 is covered in a single chapter, then there are several chapters each on the period of the war (1954-1962) and the country up to the beginning of the 21st Century.
