Fountas and Pinnell describe essential components: • A teacher works with a small group. • Students in the group are similar in their development of a reading process and are able to read about the same level of text.

Components of Balanced Literacy

Fountas and Pinnell, as well as other balanced literacy programs, places a great deal of emphasis on this guided approach to reading and group work because, fundamentally, they see reading as a social activity, rather than an individual's ability to decode text, something that happens in the confines of the brain in the reading circuit.
