Czech Photography of the 20th Century by Vladimír Birgus

After 1989 Czech photography made a significant mark on various exhibition and literary activities in the European and also in American context. (This is very well documented in the appendix to the Chronology of Czech Photography in the 20th Century by Vladimír Birgus, who points out the most important events of the entire century). Even in the domestic context, the number of books on photography, schools, and galleries that focused exclusively – or to a larger degree – on photographic ...
