Ford Taunus

The Ford Taunus is a family car that was sold by Ford Germany throughout Europe. Models from 1970 onward were built on the same basic construction as the Ford Cortina MkIII in the United Kingdom, and later on the two car models were essentially the same differing almost only in the placement of the steering wheel. The model line was named after the Taunus mountain range in Germany and was first made in 1939 and continued through several versions until 1994.
