"Fluke" comes into being after Matthew Modine is killed in a car accident. That's giving nothing away of the plot of this happy, sad, wonderful, children's, family film because that part happens almost at the beginning of the picture. Then we learn that Fluke remembers that he had a previous life as a human and finds the need to return from whence he came to find his human family but how the hell is he going to get there when he isn't quite sure where 'THERE' IS??
