Five years ago, I made the novelette WOOL available for free. Permanently. This is the short story that launched my career as a writer, and I wanted to make it available to as many readers as possible. When I discount my books, or make them free, I think about conversations I've had with authors about how we value our works.

Wool - Hugh Howey

Perhaps inevitably, Hugh Howey's Wool has been described as the science fiction version of Fifty Shades of Grey. Howey initially self-published the first instalment of his post-apocalyptic story –...

Wool by Hugh Howey - review | Books | The Guardian

Hugh, I've been following you from back when Wool was just a little indie story that was only known by word of mouth. I turned my wife on to Wool (she's not a big sci-if reader at all) and she loved them as well.
