The New Testament quote by Jesus translates Psalm eight for us, in that, praise establishes a spiritual strength and power. The Old Testament version of this verse shows us that this power is the very presence of God that silences the enemy and the avenger. The tribe of Judah was the fourth son of Jacob, and His name means "praise."

His Power and Presence in Praise | HubPages

His presence is always available. He's not a friend who turns away from you or hides his heart. He's not a small gust of wind that comes and goes as he pleases. He's a God who would suffer and die that he might tear the veil and make his presence fully, continuously available to all those who would seek him.

The Experience of His Presence - Praise.com

praise to God is a vehicle of faith which takes us into His presence and power! Praise and worship is the “gate-pass” which allows us to enter the sacredness of His glory. The psalmist writes, “Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name” (Psalms 100:4) .
