Jane Austen - Wikipedia

She famously never married—although she was once, very briefly, engaged—but that doesn't mean her life was wholly without love. Biographer Claire Tomalin suggests in Jane Austen: A Life that the closest Austen ever came to romance was with Tom Lefroy, a young lawyer with whom she was acquainted between 1795 and 1796. However, the Lefroys were significantly better off than the Austens, and since Tom was their eldest son, a romance between him and Jane was essentially doomed from the ...
