Feast of St. Thomas the Apostle. My second son Samuel was given the second name of Thomas after his Uncle Tom. We have celebrated The Feast of St. Thomas since he was little, usually by making St. Thomas Day Cookies. For this is what the interaction between the risen Lord and St Thomas shows. Christ offers him his forgiveness, his friendship, and his love by inviting him to touch his wounds.

The Apostle Thomas. The Apostle Thomas might have been one of two twins in his family because his name "Thomas Didymus" means "the twin" but he is usually better known as or referred to more often, unfortunately, as "Doubting Thomas" which we will later read why he was referred to by this nick name. We don't hear much from Thomas in the gospels at all and he is rarely mentioned until just prior to Jesus going to the cross and after His death at Calvary.
