The Law Of Arrest Search

At common law, the private citizenry could make a permissible arrest for the commission of any felony in order to protect the safety of the public. 17 An arrest could also be effected for misdemeanors that constituted a breach of the peace or public order, but only when immediate apprehension and a presence of an arresting officer was demonstrated. Much of our contemporary analysis of reasonable suspicion and probable cause also relates to the citizen's right to subject another individual ...

The Law of Arrest, Search, and Seizure

An arrest may be made by a peace officer or by a private person (77-7-1, UCA). The key element of arrest is intent. A person, by law, is under arrest when another person gives notice, usually verbal, that he/she is taking such action, and then assumes custody. Physical restraint alone is not an arrest.
