Forbidden, angsty, dramatic, sexy, romantic and full of ups and downs, The One That Got Away is second-chance romance gold! This is Karina's newest standalone release. The One That Got Away can sure be read as that but it is highly related to The Forbidden Man and I do recommend reading that one as well.

The One That Got Away by Karina Halle - Goodreads

For me, when you starts to blame yourself, that's when someone becomes the one that got away. That's when you think, “I haven't done enough, and if things were different, they would still be here.” Some people will experience this sort of grief all at once, while others will shut down because they don't want to reflect or grieve.

The One That Got Away is a journey of two souls fated for each other from the day they meet except that journey is a windy road with many paths. The foundation of that journey, though, is the belief that Halle's Luciano and Ruby will find their way to each other even though the journey isn't linear and plotted.
