Guru Chopra's (Ageless Body/Timeless Mind, 1993, etc.) first novel comes up with a mind/body version of the Arthurian legend that lends great charm to familiar lore. Chopra not only creates strong prose for his lighter-than-air battle between magical forces of good and evil but keeps the pot boiling with symbols that bounce meanings off the page and a plot that turns inside out like a glove as ...

Fiction Book Review: The Return of Merlin by Deepak Chopra ...

Deepak Chopra decided to do so in his 1995 book, The Return of Merlin, and he did it fairly well. I didn't have high hopes as a reader of fantasy fiction, and I encourage you not to either. It is only if you come at this book without an emphasis on genre that you can have the magic of Chopra's vision enchant you and feel the fine trembling ...

Book Review: The Return of Merlin, by Deepak Chopra

Wisdom and Truth and the search for them is the main theme of the story, and the return of them to a society which has lost sight of wonderment, joy and meaning, leaving only the empty husk of lives lived in quiet desperation.
