The man then explained to his sons that they were all right, because they had each seen but only one season in the tree's life. He told them that you cannot judge a tree – or a person – by only one season. The essence of who we are, the pleasure, joy, and love that come from life can only be measured at the end, when all the seasons are up.

When we understand that, we can understand that we are not going to have easy seasons all the time. Even the blessed man of Psalm 1 who meditates on the world bears fruit "in its season" (Ps 1:1-3). Whether we see fruit in our current season or not, God is still at work, preparing something good for us.
