The Tyranny of Experts Quotes by William Easterly

To support his thesis, Easterly structures The Tyranny of Experts as a sort of "debate" between proponents of so-called "authoritarian" development and "free" development, with sections titled "The Blank Slate Versus Learning From History," "Nations Versus Individuals," and "Conscious Design Versus Spontaneous Solutions." At times, however, the book comes across less like a debate than a rambling jeremiad about the futility of applying one-size-fits-all technocratic approaches in ...
