To Live In Peace Biblical

Like Dietrich Bonhoeffer's Cost of Discipleship and Martin Luther King Jr.'s Strength to Love, Mark Gornik's To Live in Peace is theological writing born of intense human struggle and conviction, a stunningly imaginative and powerful work. Gornik shows us, through both theological analysis and gripping narrative, that biblical faith matters greatly to the social existence of Christians: to the way we locate ourselves in towns and cities as well as to the way we respond to the challenges of ...

What does the Bible say about peace? | GotQuestions.org

First Peter 3:11 (AMP) is one of my favorite scriptures. It says, "Let him search for peace...and seek it eagerly. [Do not merely desire peaceful relations with God, with your fellowmen, and with yourself, but pursue, go after them!]" "Pursue" is a strong word. It requires action and doing whatever it takes to maintain peace in our lives.
